

THE DAILY NEWSPAPER

Mystery Disappearance of English Teacher Students Suspected

Today, March 5, 2021 the body of English teacher Marisa Plazas from Los Molinos High School has been found death.

According to forensics, the body has been dead since 2:43 A.M. on the night of March 5 and that she was killed with a white weapon.

Today in the morning Marisa's parents have been summoned to ask them some questions such as if she has had in the last few days any conflict with anyone or if anyone hated her and apparently they say that she got along well with everyone and that she treated them very well.

They are investigating in high school asking students and several students in one class had heard that some students were going to do something to a teacher, they could not hear who or what.

This is a picture of English teacher Marisa a few days before the horrible notice

The police are after this case to find the person responsible for the murder of teacher Marisa.

As we have said before they have interrogated several students and they had said that they were going to play a trick on a teacher according to the voice of the kids who were spying we have 5 suspects.

One with long hair chubby and tall another short with long thin hair another medium height with normal hair another short bald one these are the 5 culprits

so

The police are questioning them and asking them what they did the previous night.

One of them said he was watching a movie at home and that his parents were with him and his parents confirmed it so he is not another one who was having dinner with another suspect the partner he says he was having dinner with was at the movies another one was at the bowling alley with his family and another one was sick the night before so he did not leave his home

Thanks to the statements of each of the students the police have found a culprit who claims to have been with one of the suspects having dinner but the other suspect claims to have been doing something else so the cops already have a culprit, the one with the long hair and tall Robert William.